OUR STORY

At Aurashine Essentials, this belief has guided us since our humble beginnings as Aditi International back in 1997. We started small, driven by a passion for authentic Indian essential oils, and have grown into a global name without losing our personal touch. We've always believed in combining traditional craftsmanship with modern techniques," shares our Director. "It's how we ensure every bottle of oil carries a promise of purity." Our team of 50+ dedicated professionals work tirelessly to uphold this promise, supported by our NABL-accredited laboratory. Here, rigorous testing meets scientific innovation, so that each product lives up to the global standards. Trusted name in Sustainable Sandalwood since 1997.

Renowned for our Sandalwood and Sandalwood Oil offerings from different origins, we take pride in sourcing these precious materials responsibly. Sustainability isn't just a buzzword for us—it's a value we live by. From preserving local ecosystems to supporting farming communities, we make sure that our growth positively impacts both people and planet.

We also believe in staying ahead of the curve. That's why we continue expanding our global portfolio of essential oils and aroma ingredients, supported by strong distribution partnerships worldwide. Backed by our sourcing expertise, these offerings strengthen our long-standing tradition of quality and reliability.

OUR PRODUCTS

Aurashine stands as a trusted authority in sandalwood processing, supported by a robust portfolio of essential oils, aroma chemicals, specialty ingredients, and flavor components serving global industries. These sectors include Fragrances & Flavors, Cosmetics, Skin Care, Fine Fragrances, Attars, Pharmaceuticals, Ayurvedic formulations, and allied applications worldwide. Our operations function through two centralized warehouse facilities strategically located in Navi Mumbai. Supporting these are a dedicated quality testing laboratory and specialized units for blending and standardization. In addition, we operate two focused production units engaged in the processing of sandalwood and the development of its refined derivative products.
